The Board made statements regarding an incident that occurred on March 3 at City Hall involving Commissioner Kicinski and a City of Creedmoor employee. The Board accepted Commissioner Kicinski's statement of apology, but stated there must be consequences by stating that as elected officials that have sworn an Oath of Office, they are held to a higher standard. The Board encouraged Commissioner Kicinski to use this as an opportunity for self-assessment and improvement, and expressed faith in her ability to learn and continue serving the citizens of Creedmoor.

Mayor Pro Tem Nowell moved to censure Commissioner Kicinski due to an isolated incident involving a city employee, and further moved that, until further notice, Commissioner Kicinski's access to city hall be restricted to public meetings or appointments made by the City Manager. The motion was approved by roll call vote 5-0.
