RESOLUTION 2021-R-13

DESIGNATING THE CITY OF CREEDMOOR OWNED PARK LOCATED ON THE CREEDMOOR COMMUNITY CENTER GROUNDS AT 108 EAST WILTON AVENUE AS CREEDMOOR MEMORIAL PARK

WHEREAS, the City of Creedmoor recently completed a renovation of the former gymnasium and B.C. Roberts Field, and construction of a new gymnasium facility; and

WHEREAS, the approved name of the new construction and renovated facilities was the “Creedmoor Community Center” and the open green space was the “multi-purpose field”; and

WHEREAS, the Creedmoor Community Center was officially dedicated on April 27, 2021; and

WHEREAS, on June 1, 2021, the Board of Commissioners voted in support of a plan presented by Recreation Director Christopher Horrigan to designate and name the “multi-purpose field” as Creedmoor Memorial Park to aid in fundraising and branding efforts for the City of Creedmoor, and to designate a place of honor for those that have served in the United States Armed Forces; and

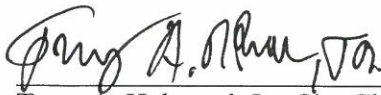

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Facility Naming Policy, the proposed name incorporates the use of Creedmoor and fits the naming criteria established therein.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Commissioners of the City of Creedmoor adopts this Resolution formally establishing the name of the open green space located at the Creedmoor Community Center at 108 East Wilton Avenue as the Creedmoor Memorial Park.

ADOPTED by unanimous vote of the Board of Commissioners of the City of Creedmoor this, the 6th day of July, 2021 upon motion from Commissioner Nowell.

Robert V. Wheeler, Mayor
