CREEDMOOR MUSIC FESTIVAL

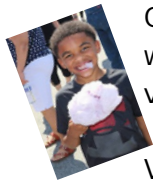

In 1992, six citizens and employees created the first Creedmoor Music Festival. What began as an acoustic Bluegrass festival has bloomed into a diverse mix of Country, Rock, Bluegrass and Alternative music.

Join us on September 16 from 10am – 5pm as we celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Creedmoor Music Festival.

We are also excited to announce Tamara Scott and Josh Chapin, from ABC11, will guest host alongside Mayor Bobby Wheeler. Musical performances include the South Granville High School Chorus kicking off the festival at 10:00am with the National Anthem followed by seven talented bands performing gospel, bluegrass, country, and rock on two stages. The Sanderford Stage kicks off with local gospel artists, Atonement at 10:30 a.m., CMF alumni, GrassStreet at 12 noon. At 2pm, Nathan Pope, winner of the top 10 under 20 in the Dallas International Guitar Show steps on the stage followed by Got To Be NC vocal finalist, Grace Lee. Granville County's own Bryan's Hill Band rocks the Southern States stage beginning at 10:45am followed by the sparkly, multi-genre songstress, Megan Doss at 1:00pm. Country crooner, Tim Cifers steps on the stage at 3:15pm. Along with more than 100 craft, food, and other vendors lining Main Street between Lyon and Park streets, Bull City Throwback Cruisers will host a Car Cruise-In at the south end of the festival, with a display of cars, trucks, and bikes. Local breweries, White Street Brewing Company and Tobacco Wood Brewing Company will be on site selling craft beer for attendees to enjoy within the festival boundaries. Don't forget the kids!! There will be free inflatables and face painting vendors in the Kid's Corner.

Visit cityofcreedmoor.org/MusicFestival for additional information including vendor and sponsorship forms, festival rules and procedures, event updates, and more.

Hawley Middle School Announcement

On April 25, 2023, the City of Creedmoor called a meeting to share their concerns about the conversion of Creedmoor Elementary to Hawley Middle School. The Granville County School Administration had sent emails stating their plans for managing the traffic flow with this change.

On behalf of the City, Commissioner Kicinski reached out to the NC-DOT, Granville County Schools, County Commissioner Russ May, Mayor Wheeler, City Manager, Creedmoor Chief of Police, Community Development Director, and City Engineer to call a meeting in the Willow Oak Room located in the Creedmoor Community Center concerning the school's plans and how it would affect our residents. At that time, the concern was gridlock that would back up Highway 56, 50, and 15, for residents and through commuters, if a traffic flow plan was not instituted. So, at that meeting, it was decided that the best way to avoid that situation was to NOT allow ANY left-hand turns IN or OUT of the entrance to the new Hawley School location. All stakeholders agreed. On Saturday, August 5th, 2023 NC-DOT installed traffic control bollards in front of the entrance. We know this may be inconvenient for some parents, but it is the only way to avoid gridlock of a much larger magnitude. County and City representatives are still working with NCDOT to make a better plan for all, but it will take some time. We are asking for your patience and cooperation through the growing pains. Thank you.

SOME NEW FACES AT CITY HALL

Rebecca Middleton is a UNC alumni, having graduated in December 2021 with a Bachelor's of Arts in Environmental Studies. She previously worked as an Environmental Compliance Inspector with Eco Turf, Inc., where she became a certified Erosion Control/Stormwater inspector. Prior to that she assisted a graduate research team for the NC State Horticulture Department. She is local to the Creedmoor area and has gone to school here for most of her life. She is excited to be part of the City staff and looks forward to growing with Creedmoor.

Lee Faines, a native of Vance County, attended Winston-Salem State University where he received his Bachelor's Degree in Accounting. Lee began employment at Sessoms & Rogers, PA where he was the Accounting Assistant. In 2018, Lee accepted a position with the Vance County Department of Social Services, as the Department's Business Officer. Before accepting the position as the Finance Director for the City of Creedmoor, Lee served as the Finance Director for Warren County from 2020 to 2023. Lee resides in Vance County with his wife, Kedecia, along with their three children, Jahson, age 12, and twins, Lee III and Leia, age 2.

Carl Barclay, a licensed Professional Engineer, was raised in Cary and lived there most of his life. After graduating from Cary High School he attended NCSU earning a BS in Civil Engineering, 20 years later, he returned to NCSU and earned a Master of Public Administration degree. He retired from the NC Dept. of Transportation in 2019 where he worked in various capacities. He is also retired from the US Marine Corps Reserves where he served as a Supply/Logistics Officer. In 2019 he and his then fiancée moved to the Falls Lake area in Northern Wake County and they were married the following year. Carl and his wife enjoy the seclusion and outdoor opportunities that come with living "outside the city limits".

CREEDMOOR POLICE DEPARTMENT'S ANNUAL NATIONAL NIGHT OUT 2023

OCTOBER 3 5:30 - 7:30PM

SOUTH GRANVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
701 NORTH CRESCENT DRIVE
CREEDMOOR NC 27522

Creedmoor Police Department invites the community to National Night Out on Tuesday, October 3, from 5:30 - 7:30 pm at South Granville High School. This FREE annual event is intended to enhance the relationship between neighbors and law enforcement while bringing back a true sense of community, the fun-filled evening includes activities focused on youth interaction, safety education, and community spirit.

National Night Out features fun activities like inflatables, face painting, impaired-vision course, several emergency vehicle displays, a touchdown from UNC Carolina Air Care helicopter, and water activities with Creedmoor Volunteer Fire Department. Kids are encouraged to wear play clothes and bring a towel. Friendly competitions will pair police officers with kids for games, and the ever popular annual doughnut eating contest. Don't worry about dinner! Free hot dogs, popcorn, sno-cones, and beverages will be available.

The 40th annual National Night Out event is sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch and is co-sponsored by the City of Creedmoor. Volunteers are still needed for the event. If you or your community group would like to volunteer and support this family-friendly event, email Angie Perry, Event Coordinator, at events@cityofcreedmoor.org.
